TREATMENTS

BIOLOGIQUE RECHERCHE

BIOLOGIQUE RECHERCHE

Facial skin care

A 100% personalised facial treatment

Biologique Recherche's Methodology is founded on 40 years of experience and is based on unique, personalised skincare protocols adapted to each person's Skin Instant®.

Suitable for both men and women, Biologique Recherche treatments always follow three main steps:

Step I : The Assessment Phase

Before your treatment, the Biologique Recherche aesthetician carries out a thorough dermo-cosmetic diagnosis to pinpoint your specific Skin Instant®. The diagnostic is also carried out based on the questionnaire you receive prior to your appointment at our institute. This means we have an overall and detailed idea of the treatment protocol that will be the most suitable for your Skin Instant®.

Step II : The Initialisation Phase

The treatment protocol begins with personalised preparation of your epidermis - the ultimate shield that protects against the aggressions of the outside world. This follows a specific, rigorous ritual based on:

- Thorough cleansing of your skin combined with a massage.
- Preparing your skin using the brand's iconic Lotion P50, and a face mask.

Step III : The Treatment Phase

This stage includes products with the highest concentration of active ingredients, to 're-condition' the epidermis and intensify its potential for self-regeneration:

- The choice of targeted and quintessential serums selected specifically by the Biologique Recherche expert

· By adding active plant or bio-marine ingredients, the finishing creams, and serums, adapted to your skin and its needs, optimise, and consolidate the action of the treatment

Reconditioned in this way, your skin recovers its elasticity, and your face its volume and natural oval.

Having positioned itself as a trendsetter in this genre of concept almost twenty years ago, Senteurs d'Ailleurs has since built a reputation for exemplary quality, priding itself on offering its clients the rarest of brands in specialised perfumes, not to be easily found in your average perfume store.

Likewise with its selection of cosmetic brands, careful attention has been made in choosing niche brands renowned for their quality and cutting edge performance. Some of these brands are used in Senteurs d'Ailleurs delightful beauty treatment rooms in the Institute.

What really sets Senteurs d'Ailleurs apart from the rest, is its enthusiastic team of experts and professionally trained specialists, who are on hand not only to assist you in finding the perfect fragrance or cosmetic product, but to share their passion with you, the client.
